

Wah Tung Yu

October 20, 1949 - February 3, 2026

Wah Tung Yu, 76, of St Louis, Missouri, passed away on February 3, 2026. Tung was a passionate cook, and the heart behind his previously owned China Chop Suey in Venice, Illinois. He dedicated many years to running his restaurant, where he shared his love for cooking and brought joy to countless patrons.

Tung was known for his enthusiasm for National Geographic and all things history related. He could often be found watching war shows, diving into the past, or indulging in his interest of firearms. He had a special love for travel, especially to Hong Kong to visit family and friends. He also enjoyed playing Mahjong, as well as growing his own vegetables and peppers.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Kwok Lee Yu and Sau King Chan-Yee; and his loving wife, May Fong Yu.

Survivors include his son, Randall (Wendy) Yu of Desloge, Missouri, as well as many relatives and friends in China and in the states.

A visitation will be held on Thursday, February 12, 2026, from 10:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. at Valhalla Chapel of Memories, 7600 St. Charles Rock Road, St. Louis, Missouri. A funeral service will start at 11:00 a.m. Burial will follow at Valhalla Cemetery where Tung will be buried with his wife and mother.
