“ My condolences go out to the family of Bill Daniels. I knew Bill when I worked at Lowe's in Glen Carbon. He was always a delight when he was in. Always in a good mood and made me smile and laugh every time. One memory I have of Bill is when he came in after a weekend of fishing and he showed me the top of his head. He had been wearing a hat that had the mesh on the top and the pattern was sunburned onto his head. We had a good chuckle over that for a few minutes. We talked about that memory every time he would say he was going fishing after that. I reminded to him change his hat so that wouldn't happen again or at least use sunscreen. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time. Allison Finley.

“Maurine and family, I am so sorry to hear of Bills passing. I first met Bill when he bought building materials at LJ Ross Home Center in Granite City back in the late 1980's and we quickly became friends. Bills laugh was infectious and I have some great memories of our fishing trips to Coffeen Lake and his favorite spot at Reelfoot Lake. Bill liked to leave around 2am to travel to Reelfoot Lake and our last trip we made there, it poured down rain all the way down to the lake. Since it was still pouring when we checked in at our cabin, I laid down to catch a nap until it let up. I am awakened an hour later by Bill kicking open the door and standing over me with a 6 plus pound bass dripping on the carpet and him declaring that the rain had stopped and it was time to get the boat launched. Lol. He was so much fun and will be dearly missed, he was one of a kind!

So many wonderful memories of our times together. We'd lost touch these last few years. Mark & Andrea introduced us to Bill and Maurine. Bill and his brother Terry built the house where we still live. Our daughter was about 2 at the time, and when we were all at the construction site one day she said "Bill build me a house!" He always had smile, and was quick with a joke. We'll see you in the next world and look forward to hearing your laugh again Bill.
