“ Chef the first time I met you was when you came to judge our 1st BBQ contest at Sonny's. You didn't hesitate when we asked you, you came with lots and lots of appetizers for the patrons there. I've since enjoyed your delicious food many times. Your smile and energy for the community will be missed. Overland was a better place because of you. God Bless You! RIP Chef Ma

“ I was excited when he opened his restaurant both at the Old Taco Bell building then later at his location on page. The nicest and most friendly of people. My entire family and friends feel his loss. We are so sorry and hurt inside. Much love to you all!! He was the best...A shining star who has taken his place in the heavens.
